The National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame is renovating its second floor which will share stories from our Hall of Fame Honorees – and the horses they have known along the way.

Send us a photograph of your horse! We will proudly display it in our Anne W. Marion gallery, where we have our renovation plans for the second floor. Photographs will be displayed through September 17, 2017.

Specifications

- The photographs will not be returned – make sure you are sending one that you will not get back
- No electronic submissions are accepted – photographs must be hardcopy
- No smaller than 4x5, and no larger than 11x17
- It must be a photograph you took, or if not, be one with permission from the photographer clearly noted on the photograph
- The horse must be the main focus of the photograph
- The photograph should be large and clean – not grainy or blurry

Mail to

National Cowgirl Museum
1720 Gendy Street
Fort Worth, TX 76107
Attn: It’s Never Just a Horse

The Museum reserves the right to withhold any photographs not deemed appropriate for display