

National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame

Girl Scout Patch Requirements

Daisies: Complete the starred activities.

Brownies: Complete the starred activities and one additional activity.

Juniors: Complete the starred activities and three additional activities.

Cadettes, Seniors, and Ambassadors: Complete the starred activities and five additional activities.

Starred Activities:

- ☆ Visit the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame.
- ☆ Watch "Spirit of the Cowgirl" and discuss what it means to be a cowgirl.
- ☆ Complete the scavenger hunt activity available at the front desk.

Additional Activities:

- Find the statue of Sacagawea in front of the Museum. Discuss what you think the artist, Glenna Goodacre, is trying to express in her work. Use the internet or books in the library to research Sacagawea and the role she played in the Louis and Clark expedition.
- Take a photo in the photo booth in Hitting the Mark. If you share it online, please tag us with the #cowgirlmuseum hashtag.
- How would you describe a cowgirl? Did your opinion change or stay the same after touring the Museum? Discuss as a troupe. At home:
  - Draw a picture of a cowgirl.
  - Write an acrostic poem about cowgirls.
  - Write a story about cowgirls and include some of the things you learned at the Museum.
  - Research a cowgirl in the Cowgirl Hall of Fame (www.cowgirl.net) and write down two things you learned about her.
- Compare and contrast your life with that of a performer in a Wild West show. Use dialogue from the Annie Oakley videos in the Hitting the Mark: Cowgirls and Wild West Shows gallery as well as an outside resource (such as the internet or books in the library) to find out more about Wild West shows.
- Investigate an activity that cowgirls may enjoy. Present and/or play the activity with your troop. Invite younger girls to participate.
- Write and illustrate a short children's book about cowgirls.
- Complete five hours of service to help the Museum with a special event or educational program.

The Women Who Shape the West...Change the World!

GS-TOP and the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame have collaborated to bring you this opportunity to learn about women of the West whose inspiring stories are filled with examples of courage and determination.

Patches are available for purchase at the Girl Scouts of Texas Oklahoma-Plains store.
