

National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame

Girl Scout Patch Requirements

Daisies: Complete the starred activities.

Brownies: Complete the starred activities and one additional activity.

Juniors: Complete the starred activities and three additional activities.

Cadettes, Seniors, and Ambassadors: Complete the starred activities and five additional activities.

Starred Activities:

- ☆ Visit the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame.
- ☆ Watch the "Cowgirl" and "Jessie" videos in the film lounge and discuss what it means to be a cowgirl.
- ☆ Complete the scavenger hunt activity available at the front desk.

Additional Activities:

- Find the statue of Sacagawea in front of the Museum. Discuss what you think the artist Glenna Goodacre is trying to express in her work. Use the internet or books in the library to research Sacagawea and the role she played in the Lewis and Clark expedition.
- Ride the bronc or create your own design in the Media Design Room in the It's Never Just a Horse™ exhibition.
- Use the media stations to select and learn more about a Cowgirl Hall of Fame Honoree. At home, using the Cowgirl Hall of Fame (www.cowgirl.net) write a short biography of her life incorporating two things you've learned about her.
- Take a photo in the photo booth in the Hitting the Mark gallery. If you share, please tag us using the #cowgirlmuseum hashtag.
- Write and illustrate a short children's book about cowgirls, focusing on the five themes from the It's Never Just a Horse™ exhibition.
- Compare and contrast your life with that of a performer in a Wild West show. Use dialogue from the Hitting the Mark gallery as well as an outside resource to find out more about Wild West shows.

The Women Who Shape the West...Change the World!

GS-TOP and the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame have collaborated to bring you this opportunity to learn about women of the West whose inspiring stories are filled with examples of courage and determination.

Patches are available for purchase at the Girl Scouts of Texas Oklahoma-Plains store.
